How Much Is It? $20.00

What Do I Need To Participate?

BOOK NOW HERE

- o Proof of employment in Banff, Lake Louise or other parts of Banff National Park
- o Attendance confirmation email from the Welcome & Orientation session that you attended.
- o You will need the promo code that you received within your Welcome & Orientation attendance confirmation email to book your sightseeing tour at the Ambassador Program rate for yourself only.
- o Personal identification

What Else Should I Know?

During approximately 3 hours, you will visit places like the Bow Falls, Surprise Corner, the Hoodoos and Lake Minnewanka while learning about the natural and cultural heritage of Banff National Park. You'll also learn about wildlife habitat and behavior and if you're lucky, you'll see some wildlife too!

Remember to be on time for your tour experience. The little blue bus and guide will be there to pick you up at a local Banff hotel of your choosing between 8:15am and 8:30am. You must be there for 8:15am, if the bus arrives at your pick up point and you are not there they will leave without you, and you will miss out on this opportunity. Refunds will not be arranged.

Upon pick up, show the guide your proof of employment in Banff National Park, Welcome & Orientation attendance confirmation email and personal identification.

Respect for others and the Program is expected in order to continue through these experiences and opportunities.

How Do I Pick Up My Ambassador Pass?

At the end of your tour, you will be issued the Ambassador Pass. Please note that only one Ambassador Pass will be issued per eligible participant.

Pick up your Pass from: Discover Banff Tours store at 215 Banff Avenue in the Sundance Mall on Banff Avenue. Bring your attendance confirmation email from the Welcome & Orientation session that you attended, personal identification and proof of your employment in Banff, Lake Louise or other parts of Banff National Park.

The Discover Banff Tours team will check that you joined their Interpretive Sightseeing tour.
